The draft commenced in Boston and some of the adjoining towns to day, and is submitted to in a quiet and peaceful spirit.

IMPORTANT TO MERCHANTS—THE INJUSTICE OF SEC-RETART CHASE'S DECISION IN RELATION TO THE FIFTY PER CENT TARIFF INCREASE, ETC.

A special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was convened at one o'clock yesterday, to take action on the tive to the law passed by Congress, imposing a duty of fifty per cent in addition to the former rates of tariff, for sixty days, on all goods imported into the United States

This act was passed by the House on the 25th of April and on the 28th it was approved by the Senate, and re 20th at ween o'clock in the evening.

The point invoived between the Chamber and the Secre tary of the Treasury is whether the operation of the law can equitably affect goods bonded previous to the bill re-ceiving the signature of the President? A majority of the members were of opinion that Congress did not in-tend the law to be retrospective.

JONATHAN STURGES, EMP., chairman of the Committee, submitted a memorial, to be forwarded to Congress, ap-pealing from the decision of Secretary Chaes, and asking that body to pass a declaratory act fixing the date at which time the law was intended to take effect, and when it will cease.

that body to pass a declaratory act fixing the date at which time the law was intended to take effect, and when it will cease.

Ex Mayor Ordykk objected to the phraseology of the memorial, as, in his ordinen, it conveyed an implied censure on the official conduct of Mr. Chase, and contended that the decision of the Hon. Secretary was based on a war measure adopted by Congress in 1812, which was declared by the Supreme Court at that time to be constitutional; and as that decision had not been reversed be considered that the Secretary was perfectly correct in assuming that the decision was still in force. As a matter of equity, Mr. Ojdyke said be considered the effect of the law, so are as it affected the pecuniary interests of the mercantile community, to be little less than legalized robbery, and the only objection ne had to the measure was that merchants who had paid the duty on goods imported previous to the passage of the act, and who had sold those goods, should be muleted in fifty percent additional.

A considerable debate ensued as to whether the memorial should be revised and couched in language more respective to the Secretary of the Treasury; and after a full discussion of the question it was finally resolved that the memorial and accompanying resolution be referred back to the same committee, with power to modify the language expressed therein so far as it applied to the official conduct of the Secretary of the Treasury; and after a full discussion of the accompanying resolution be reserved and couched in the secretary of the Treasury; and after a full discussion of the secretary of the Treasury; and after a full discussion of the secretary of the Treasury; and after a full discussion of the secretary of the Treasury; and after a full discussion of the secretary of the Treasury; and after a full discussion of the Secretary of the Treasury; and a

The American Question.

In the House of Commons on the 28th uit. Sir George Grey said that the government had, no intention of proposing a conference on American adairs, as in that conference the British government was quite certain the American government would not concur.

Mir Pracock catied attention to the case of the Tuscalossa, and criticized the action of the government. He charged the government with adopting the views of the federal agents, and moved a resolution that the instructions contained in the Duke of Newcastle's despatch of the 4th of November, 1885, to the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, are at variance with the principles of international law.

The Solutior General denied that the Tuscalossa had a right to be treated as a commissioned vessel.

The Attorney General made a speech in defence of the government.

The Attorney General made a speech in defence of the government.

Speeches were made on the opposite side by Mr. Whiteside, Mr. Elphinstone, Sir H. Gairns and others.

The House divided with the following result:—For the resolution, 185; against it. 219.

In the House divided on the 29th ultimo Earl Derby called attention to the great length of the published correspondence between the government and Messrs. Laird, relative to the seizer of the rams built by the latter.

Earl Russell defended the course taken by the government, and submitted that it was owing to the vigilance of the government that the Lairds had not succeeded in plunging Earland into a war with the United States fair Russell defended the by expressing an earnest hope that the war would result in the final destruction of slavery.

The Danish War.

The Danes have evacuated Frederica and withdrawn to the Island of Femeru. They left many cannon behind.

The Prussians took possession of Frederica.

It is stated that the Senate of Bremen had been informed by the Danish government that the Danish war vesses had been instructed not to molest any German steamers carrying United States mails. This decision is principally owing to representations made at Copenhagen, by the United States government. German steamers will therefore continue to run without molestation to and from New York.

cannes, recently waited on District Attorney, Hall and applied for a warrant against Horace Greelev, of the Inme, for libet, the Count alleging that he had been most grossly libelied is an article recently published in that journal. He produced the offensive paragraph, and, after carefully perasing it, the District Attorney decided that was not abellous. The Count then asked Mr. Hail's opinion on an article published in the New York Leader. f the 7th instant, entitled "Count No-Account," com menting in rather uncomplimentary terms on a recent exhibition given by the Count at the Academy of Music. Count Joannes was positive that Mr. John Clancy, editor and proprietor of the Leader, had libelled him in a gross manner. Mr. Hall, however, declined to decide on the actionable character of the Leader's editorial, on the ground that he was an occasional contributor to the columns of that journal. City Judge Russel was next applied to by the Count, and the Judge promptly decided that the Leader's "Gount No-Account" editorial was libellous, and accordingly advised the Count to seek redress in a police court. This advice was acted upon, and yesterday Count Joannes appeared before Justice Dowling, at the Tombs Ponce Court, and lodged a complaint against Mr. Clancy.
